ALSO HAPPENING THIS MONTH:

EARTH DAY

On April 22nd, we celebrate Earth Day. It is a day to raise awareness and take action to protect our planet by reducing pollution, conserving resources, and promoting sustainability. Earth Day began in 1970 and has since grown into a worldwide movement with over 190 countries participating. It serves as a reminder that we all have a responsibility to protect and preserve our planet for generations to come. By making small changes in our daily lives, we can create a more sustainable and healthy planet.

WORLD CREATIVITY AND INNOVATION DAY

Every year, on April 21st, we celebrate World Creativity and Innovation Day to recognize the importance of creativity and innovation in problem-solving and improving our world. It is a day to celebrate the power of innovative thinking and to encourage individuals, organizations, and governments to invest in creativity and innovation for a better tomorrow. So, let us celebrate this day by embracing our creative abilities and by making a positive difference in the world!

WORLD BOOK DAY

World Book Day is an annual event celebrated on April 23rd, designed to promote the love of reading and encourage people worldwide to share their favorite books with others. This global initiative also seeks to promote literacy and to make books more accessible to people of all ages and backgrounds. On World Book Day, people are encouraged to engage in a variety of activities, such as reading aloud, holding book clubs, and sharing their favorite authors and genres with friends and family.
